MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR.

Mr. Harry Bean, of the office of Congressman Curry, called to advise, confidentially, he stated, that Congressman Curry is planning to oppose the bill to place Honolulu and, in fact, the Hawaiian Islands, under either naval or military government, and that there is such a bill pending in Congress, the committee hearing being scheduled for tomorrow; that the Congressman does not believe that this bill should be passed and he is desirous of obtaining some statistics on crime which would show the actual conditions in Hawaii. He had in mind, Mr. Bean stated, that our statistical division might supply information which would permit comparisons to be made between cities in the continental United States of comparable size with Honolulu.

I advised Mr. Bean that I understood that such a compilation was used by Assistant Attorney General Richardson at the time of the preparation of his report. I ascertained from Mr. Waters that such a schedule had been prepared. I referred Mr. Bean to Mr. Waters and informed Mr. Waters that he might supply Mr. Bean with what information was available. It appears that this information is exactly what the Congressman desires.

Respectfully,

V. W. Hughes.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON

The Communications Section makes up a daily recapitulation sheet of all incoming messages, the original of which sheet, at the end of the day, is routed to you, Mr. Tamm, and Mr. Glavin. A copy of this sheet is kept in Communications Section for a period of thirty days. These sheets have been maintained and are on file in the Files Division since January 2, 1931. There are presently forty sections of this file which occupy four file drawers.

I have checked with Mr. Alley of the Chief Clerk's Office and Mr. Coleman of the Communications Section and it is agreed that there would be no possible need for the maintenance of these sheets for more than six months. Accordingly, it is recommended that authority be given to destroy all old sheets for the period prior to the past six months.

A sample of these sheets is attached.

Respectfully,

O. H. Patterson

The Executive Conference consisting of Messrs. Tolson, E. A. Tamm, Lawler, Carson, Nichols, Ladd, Quinn Tamm, and Rosen considered the suggestion made by Mr. Patterson to the effect that the original of the daily recapitulation sheet of all incoming telegrams and teletypes be retained on file for a period of six months and then destroyed.

It was pointed out that heretofore these sheets have been maintained indefinitely and that they are on file in the Files Division since January 2, 1931.

Mr. Rosen advised that insofar as he knew there had been no occasion to refer to these sheets and the Conference unanimously recommends that they be destroyed at the end of six months, thereby always having available the recapitulation sheets for the past six months' period.

Respectfully submitted,

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. FOXWORTH

Upon reference from the Director's office, the writer spoke by telephone to Mr. [REDACTED] of Charlotte, North Carolina, residence [REDACTED] telephone number [REDACTED] who advised that he had information of great value to the Bureau and to the Government. It was immediately apparent that Mr. [REDACTED] was intoxicated, and apparently did not realize that he was telephoning to the Bureau prepaid as he kept insisting that the call was being made at the Government's expense. It was impossible to get any information from Mr. [REDACTED] as to the nature of his complaint, and he finally put another individual named [REDACTED] Nickory, North Carolina, on the line who spoke with a German accent and who also appeared to be intoxicated. The gist of the information furnished by [REDACTED] was that he was German and could furnish his life story which would reflect conditions in Germany. Neither he nor [REDACTED] had any information concerning any sabotage or espionage matter. Mr. [REDACTED] insisted he was going to call the Attorney General and the White House after he had completed the call with the writer to furnish them the information.

In view of the very apparent intoxicated condition of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] it is not believed necessary to send this information to the Charlotte Field Division. The address of the Charlotte Office was furnished to these gentlemen but in their condition it is doubtful if they made a note of it.

A hysterical, apparently demented woman telephoned and talked to the writer in a very incoherent manner and it was impossible to make very much sense from her conversation. However, she did state that she had worked for Mr. Bielaski when he was affiliated with the Bureau of Investigation; that a Mr. Stephens was Bielaski's secretary at that time and that she knew Miss Helen Gandy as well as the Director.

She vehemently stated that she hated the Director; that he was a "dirty rat;" and that she would scratch his eyes out if she had the opportunity.

This woman refused to state her name or address or the specific reason for calling the Bureau and during her rambling incoherent conversation mentioned the names Charles and Jimmy, her nephews who apparently are in the Army and about whose safety she is concerned.

Due to the import of her conversation the writer arranged to have it recorded when he realized this woman was referring to the Director in a threatening, derogatory manner. The writer attempted to continue to engage this woman in conversation while Mr. Jenkins of the Communications Section attempted to have the call traced. However, this woman hung up before the trace was completed and the Chief Operator of the Telephone Company could only determine that the call originated at a pay station 'phone serviced by the local Georgia telephone exchange.

The above mentioned records will be maintained in the writer's file cabinet temporarily pending a determination of whether they serve any purpose.

Respectfully,

John P. Hyland, Jr.

An unidentified woman called over Republic 7110. She was very incoherent and seemed to be verging on hysterics. However, the operator heard her mention the name "J. Edgar Hoover", concerning whom she made several disparaging remarks. During this entire time most of her conversation was unintelligible. Because she had mentioned the Director's name, Mr. Hyland, the Night Supervisor was contacted and advised of the nature of the call. He requested to speak with the woman and was connected with her.

At this point a record of the conversation was started. The Bureau operator then contacted the Chief Operator of the Telephone Company, identified himself to her, and requested that the call be traced.

The Chief Operator reported back that the call had been traced to the Georgia Exchange office at which time the connection had been lost by the woman suddenly hanging up. The Chief Operator checked with the Georgia Exchange office and found that shortly after 12:00 midnight someone had dialed the operator and asked for the F.B.I. The call came from a pay station and because it did the operator handling the call did not ask for the person's number. The Chief Operator indicated there was no further way to trace the call.

Mr. Hyland is retaining in his possession the records made of the conversation.

Mrs. [redacted] Washington, D. C., advised me telephonically that at 9:00 p.m. on the night of May 4, 1942, a girl knocked on her door and stated that Mrs. [redacted] in Apartment 622 had referred her to [redacted] since the girl had been unable to get any hotel accommodations, and Mrs. [redacted] might know of someone who had an extra room. Mrs. [redacted] arranged for this girl, who gave the name of [redacted] to spend the night with Mrs. [redacted] Apartment 710, who had an extra room. The following morning Miss [redacted] called several men on the telephone from Mrs. [redacted] apartment, including one [redacted] at the Carlton Hotel, whom she had a hard time locating because he was apparently sharing a room with some other individual. Miss [redacted] claimed to be from Texas and appeared to be quite anti-Semitic. She indicated she had a reservation to proceed to New York at 4:00 p.m. by train.

Miss [redacted] carried no baggage and the following morning Mrs. [redacted] learned that the girl had not been referred to her by Mrs. [redacted]. Mrs. [redacted] thought the information should be called to our attention.

In connection with the attached notation from the Director's Office, I talked with Mr. Horace Akin of Austin, Texas, in your absence, at which time he desired to make an appointment with Mr. Hoover for his associate, Mr. Stanley Smith of San Antonio, with regard to previous correspondence which Mr. Smith had directed to the Bureau. I explained to Mr. Akin that the Director was out of town for an indefinite period and told him that one of Mr. Hoover's assistants would be glad to discuss the matter with Mr. Smith, who is to return to San Antonio tomorrow. Mr. Smith then came to the telephone advising that Mr. Akin could handle the matter for him inasmuch as Mr. Akin was familiar with it. It was accordingly arranged that Mr. Akin would call the Bureau in the early future to arrange for an appointment.

67C-1 Professor [REDACTED]
Washington, D. C., called and advised that he had filled out an application for a Governmental position and wished to speak with someone at the Bureau before submitting the application. I asked the Professor what the nature of his information was and with what department of the Government he had filed this application, but he declined to give me any information over the phone. He stated that he was on a party line and did not wish to involve his friends in any trouble. He wanted to know if it were not possible to be interviewed at the Bureau.

67C-1 I advised Professor [REDACTED] that it would be perfectly all right and that he should call at the Director's Office where he would be directed to the proper official.

Supervisor Quigley of the New York Office telephoned on June 18, 1942. He advised me that Detective David A. Wilson of the New York Missing Persons Bureau had contacted the New York Office concerning an individual who had died the previous night at the Knickerbocker Hospital. This girl, named Barbara Lee, alias Barbara Winter, was a drug addict, and the New York Police Department, subsequent to her death, received an anonymous telephone call. This anonymous call advised that Barbara Lee had a brother named Robert Lee working in the Identification Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The anonymous caller further added that Miss Lee had a sister named Mary Leska of 118 Chester Street, Boston, Massachusetts. Quigley stated that the New York Police had checked with Boston and there is no such address. He requested that we ascertain whether a Robert Lee in our Identification Division had a sister named Barbara.

I made a check of the employees of the Identification Division and we do not have a Robert Lee in that division. We have some other Lee's working in the Identification Division, but according to their personnel files they do not have a sister named Barbara. We have two Robert Lees in the Bureau, one a supervisor in the Chief Clerk's Office, who does not have a sister named Barbara, and another, an Agent in Houston, who according to his personnel file does not have such a sister. This information was furnished to Mr. Quigley.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. D. M. LADD

At approximately 9:30 P.M. on June 28, 1942, a Mrs. [redacted] telephone [redacted] called the Bureau and talked to John Morley, one of the switchboard operators. Mrs. [redacted] advised Morley that she had left her home for a few minutes and when she got back there was a note on the table that she should call Mr. Hoover. The telephone number of the Bureau was also on the note and Mrs. [redacted] was therefore calling to see what it was all about. She advised Morley that the note was not signed. She further stated that she is not acquainted with Mr. Hoover and admitted that someone could have played a prank on her.

674-1
Mr. Morley advised Mrs. [redacted] that he would endeavor to determine if someone at the Bureau had called her and in the event that they had she would be recontacted.

674-1
The writer checked with Supervisor Buckbee on your desk with negative results and there was apparently no one at the Bureau who had called Mrs. [redacted]

8:00 A.M. Telephone Calls

MISS [REDACTED] Washington, D. C. telephoned and when advised that Mr. Hoover was out of his office, stated that she wanted to report some suspicious occurrences at her apartment. She did not want to talk to the Washington Field Office at this time.

An attempt was made to find out what sort of 'suspicious occurrences' she had in mind, but she would merely state that men were getting into her apartment without her knowledge. She wanted the matter checked.

Miss [REDACTED] gave the impression that she is either a very old lady or one who is somewhat mentally unstable. For instance, she began the conversation by inquiring if she should speak into the "big or little end of the telephone". It was necessary to ask her a question several times to get an answer in either the affirmative or the negative and even then she seemed uncertain in her reply.

Files have no record on [REDACTED] from Washington, D. C. which appears identical with the above mentioned woman.

As a matter of record a MR. MCGILL telephoned through long distance operator from Lewiston, Maine, and when advised Mr. Hoover was out of the city the operator stated Mr. McGill did not wish to speak with an assistant nor leave a message.

Efforts were made to obtain the initials or first name of Mr. McGill and also what he was calling about but the operator stated she was unable to obtain this information.

67C-1

A Mr. [REDACTED] from Chicago made a personal call and wanted to speak to Mr. Hoover. The operator told Mr. [REDACTED] that Mr. Hoover was not in the building and he then replied that he wanted to speak to him at home. The operator did not obtain the identity of Mr. [REDACTED] but did find out that the reason he wanted to speak with the Director was because he thought the Chicago Office had framed him on a robbery charge and he wanted to report it. The operator, Miss Virginia Phillips, also reported that [REDACTED] had said he had tried to telephone to President Roosevelt. After he was advised that Mr. Hoover was not available, he then said he would talk with me. The call was a prepaid call, but Mr. [REDACTED] evidently ran into some trouble with the telephone operator over the charges, as the call was never completed and the operator reported that he was evidently drunk.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. LADD

By reference from the Director's Office, the Secretary to Congressman Martin of Massachusetts called the writer and requested to know if an officer in the Merchant Marine had to secure clearance from the FBI before he could take a camera with him on a cruise on an American merchant ship. I advised the Secretary that this was not within the FBI's jurisdiction and that if such a rule existed, it would probably be a security measure adopted and put into effect by the Navy. I offered to attempt to find out for her if such a rule existed, but she stated that she would make this inquiry from the Navy herself and asked for suggestions as to who to call in the Navy. I gave her Rhea Whitley's name and telephone number. She said that if she were not able to find what she wanted, she would call the writer back.

This lady who resides in Worthington, Ohio, called this afternoon at the above time. Her conversation was extremely incoherent and she appeared to be a mental case.

For example, she demanded that the Bureau return her love letters which she knew the Bureau had "since the FBI always gets everything." I assured her that the Bureau did not have her letters and, hence, could not return them. She mentioned several other matters which are too trivial to report.

ACTION: None.

FACTS

By reference from the Director's Office the writer accepted a telephone call from the above-named individual, who was in the office of Senator Johnson of Colorado at the time. He indicated that he is engaged in the mining business in Colorado and had voluntarily come to Washington to testify before the Ways and Means Committee concerning the legislation affecting the mining industry. At the conclusion of his testimony about a week ago, he was accosted in the Capitol Building by several individuals who he thought were FBI Agents inasmuch as they identified themselves as government investigators by displaying certain credentials. They questioned him concerning his possession of four gold coins which he had exhibited to the above-mentioned committee, and indicated that he was violating a Federal law by possessing these coins.

Mr. [REDACTED] purpose in calling the Bureau was to determine whether he actually violated the law by possessing gold coins and whether it was contemplated any criminal action would be taken against him.

ACTION TAKEN

The writer pointed out that matters pertaining to possible violations of the coin and currency laws are investigated by the Secret Service Division of the Treasury Department and not the FBI. Since Mr. [REDACTED] desired to straighten the matter out while he was visiting Senator Johnson's office, the writer telephonically contacted Mr. E. A. Wildy of the Secret Service, who recalled the incident mentioned by Mr. [REDACTED] and indicated that he would immediately contact him and settle the difficulty.

A check of the Bureau's indices failed to reveal any information relative to [REDACTED] No further action is necessary.

Respectfully,

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. ROSEN

RE: ~~MISSING~~ PERSON MATTER

Miss Krismer, Secretary of Congressman Lawrence Smith of Wisconsin, telephoned the Director's Office and was referred to me. She wanted to know the Bureau's policy relative to looking for missing persons, stating the Congressman had received a request from one of his constituents involving a boy who has not been seen for ten years.

I told her the Bureau was unable to conduct active investigations relative to missing persons, but pointed out how we could in worthy cases put stops in the Identification Division and, when space permits, pictures in the FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin.

Miss Krismer stated she had believed the above was our policy, but merely wanted to check and make certain of this fact before answering the inquiry the Congressman had received.

United States Navy

67C-1

At 3:10 A.M. on October 24, 1943, while on late duty, I received a telephone call from the subject. He stated that he had gone into a beer parlor some place in town and drunk a number of glasses of beer and that when he came out he was minus $40. He stated that he was of the opinion that he had been doped and the money stolen from him.

I told him that the Bureau had no jurisdiction over this matter and suggested that he contact the Shore Patrol. He stated that he had contacted the Shore Patrol but that they refused to do anything for him and went off and left him. He insisted that the Bureau do something about the matter and I again pointed out to him that it was not within the Bureau's jurisdiction. He then wanted to know if the persons who had allegedly doped him had questioned him for information concerning the names and whereabouts and sailing dates of certain ships whether the Bureau would be interested. I told him that the Bureau would be interested in that type of information and asked him whether this had happened. He stated that he did not remember of it having happened but that it very possibly could have happened while he had been doped. I again suggested to him that he refer this matter to the Shore Patrol.

The subject thereupon became indignant and stated that he would write to the Mayor of St. Louis, his Congressman and the President and tell them that the FBI had failed to handle this matter. I again told him that there is nothing that the FBI could handle and that it was something for the Shore Patrol to handle.

It is to be noted that the subject while conversing over the phone sounded as though he were intoxicated at the time. Several times there was a lull in the conversation when he was trying to find words to express himself and it sounded as though he had dropped the receiver of the telephone on one or two occasions.

RECORDED & INDEXED

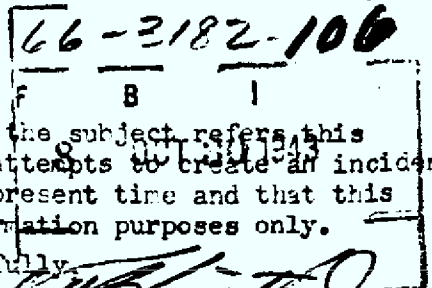

ACTION:

This information is being submitted in case the subject refers this matter to his Congressman or the President and attempts to create an incident. It is suggested that no action be taken at the present time and that this matter be placed in the Bureau's files for information purposes only.

Respectfully,

Paul P. Kriehue, Jr.

b7C-1
At 7:45 P.M. the switchboard advised a long distance call had been received from one [redacted] of Cincinnati, Ohio and that he insisted upon talking to someone at the Bureau. The writer was advised that the caller appeared to be intoxicated.

b7C-1
The writer talked to [redacted] who was obviously from his unintelligible conversation highly intoxicated. From the tenor of his conversation he was highly dissatisfied with the city government and fearful for the younger generation in a city so filled with vice, particularly narcotic violations. He was pressed for specific information relative to his complaints but no specific information. His conversation wandered and was scarcely audible at times. When he insisted upon telling the FBI his complaints he was told to contact the Field Office, which he claimed he had called on the telephone, although he at other times indicated he had contacted the Federal Narcotic agents.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. ~~SECRET~~

RE: ~~REDACTED~~
Information Concerning

67C-1
Night Supervisor, P. B. Smith, has advised me that at 2:30 A.M., November 23, 1943, the switchboard operator called and advised that the above-named party was calling on the "kidnap" number, National 7117. When Agent Smith was connected the above-named party said, "Better come down here in a hurry, this is an emergency call." Before Smith could secure any further information from ~~REDACTED~~ he hung up. The Washington operator checked and found that the call came from Metropolitan 7302, Wings Restaurant, 622 H Street. A call was made to this number and an individual identifying herself as a waitress came to the phone. She stated that an intoxicated sailor had been using this phone to call the FBI, the Police Department and the Shore Police. Nothing further was done in connection with this call.

67C-1
At 3:15 A.M. Special Agent R. L. Levy of the Washington Field called and advised that he had just received a call from Lieutenant D. Marsella of the Shore Patrol. Lieutenant Marsella advised Special Agent Levy that members of the Shore Patrol had just picked up ~~REDACTED~~ a member of the Coast Guard who was in an intoxicated condition. Lieutenant Marsella advised that they were going to release him but that ~~REDACTED~~ had made incoherent statements to the effect that he was working for the FBI and "had been in touch with the FBI tonight." Special Agent Levy was advised of the circumstances surrounding ~~REDACTED~~ call. Special Agent Levy stated that he would furnish this information to Lieutenant Marsella.

67C-1
RECOMMENDATION: None. As ~~REDACTED~~ was wearing a Coast Guard uniform, there is apparently no violation of the Impersonation Statute.

At this time a gentleman stating he was from Representative Tibbott's Office said he had an inquiry from a constituent, inquiring about a statute prohibiting the hoarding of money, which statute the constituent thought was enforced by the FBI.

The writer advised there is no statute within the knowledge of the FBI prohibiting the ~~X~~hoarding of currency. It was stated the constituent probably had reference to the ~~X~~gold hoarding statute under which we have conducted a number of investigations. It was agreed that this was probably what the constituent was talking about, as no one has ever heard of any law other than the ~~law~~ law of supply and demand which prohibits one from having and holding as much currency as he can get, legally.

Re: MRS. [REDACTED]

Jersey City, New Jersey

Facts

By reference from the Director's office the writer accepted a telephone call from the above named individual who complained of the fact that she was the victim of experiments by several doctors as a result of which she is presently a nervous wreck. She also claimed to have been involved in a number of law suits which resulted in the loss of all of her property and she now feels she is "black-balled" by all lawyers in New Jersey and is unable to obtain the right to appear in court which she considers a privilege of her citizenship.

Action taken

67C-1 Mrs. [REDACTED] was advised of the Bureau's lack of jurisdiction. Because of the incoherent nature of her complaint the writer is of the opinion she is a mental case.

Respectfully,

67C-1
At. 4:20am the above person called and related the following information: He stated that early in the evening he and his wife were having dinner with Cap't. [REDACTED] of the U.S. Navy at the LaSalle Dubois restaurant. On leaving the place he observed a young girl fall out of a phone booth in a dead faint. He picked her up and noticed she was wearing a naval identification badge. After she came to he asked her her name and she told him she was the daughter of Commander [REDACTED]. Inasmuch as he was also a Commander in the Navy he felt obligated to help her. This girl told him that she had been suffering from apoplexy, and not knowing what to do with her he remembered that room 502 at the Hay Adams House was vacant, so together with his wife he took her there. He then called Dr. [REDACTED] a naval doctor, who examined her and confirmed the fact that she was suffering from apoplexy. He and his wife then left the girl and returned home.

67C-1
He later called the hotel to find out how the girl was, at which time she threatened to jump out of the window. He calmed her down and then went back to the hotel to see her. She had in her possession sedatives, and admitted that her true name was MRS. [REDACTED] and that her husband was a Lt. in the Navy stationed at Solomons Island Md. She showed a picture of her husband and he had four service campaign ribbons on his coat. She admitted that she had recently quit a job at the Naval Observatory and had a plane reservation to go to Norfolk, Va. at eight this morning where she would stay at the Monticello Hotel. She had an expensive camera and luggage, and $200 pinned to her blouse.

67C-1
Commander [REDACTED] after giving the above story stated that he was worried for fear he would be liable if she committed suicide and wanted the FBI to have the facts. He sounded like he was drunk and could be heard asking some female as to the exact details, apparently his wife. He was informed his call would be made a matter of record.

Facts

By reference from the Director's office the writer accepted a telephone call from the above named individual who stated that an article appeared in the local papers about a month ago indicating that the Standard Oil Company had issued reports that it had opened a commercial well on the west coast of Florida between Tampa and Sarasota. Mr. [REDACTED] stated that he is an "oil man" and knows that there are no commercial wells in that district. He thought the matter should be called to the Bureau's attention.

Although it was not evident from his conversation that [REDACTED] was intoxicated or mentally unsound, there apparently was no reason for his telephone call unless he was attempting to impress someone who might have been listening. As soon as the writer picked up the telephone to say hello Mr. [REDACTED] boisterously opened the conversation with the exclamation "Greetings friend." Throughout the entire conversation the voices of other individuals could be heard in the background and it also sounded like several children were crying. It is possible, therefore, that [REDACTED] was attempting to impress someone who was listening to the conversation.

Action - None necessary.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. COFFEY

67C-1
 A telephone call has been received from Mrs. [redacted] who was employed as a clerk in the FBI some 23 or 24 years ago under her maiden name of Miss [redacted]. She has been married for quite a few years to [redacted] who is an officer in the Marine Corps and who is now a Colonel and who has been recently stationed in Guantamano. There he had a Chinese boy as a domestic in his household. Mrs. [redacted] states that Colonel [redacted] is returning to the United States on December 10, 1943, and has made application for this Chinese boy to enter the United States in order that he may continue his employment in the [redacted] domestic establishment. She stated that his entry application had to be approved by the Military and Naval authorities, by the State Department and by the FBI and her call was to request that the Bureau take favorable action in the application.

67C-1
 Mrs. [redacted] call was referred to me because she knew the Director and me when she was employed here many years ago. I advised her that a memorandum concerning the matter would be prepared in order that it might be sent down to the appropriate section of the FBI.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. LADD

Re: Miss [REDACTED]

At the above time, Miss [REDACTED] who gave her address as [REDACTED] Arlington, New Jersey, called the writer on long distance with the following complaint:

She stated that she wanted to see an agent immediately as she had some information to give the Bureau concerning an attempted murder. When questioned concerning who was to be murdered, she replied, "I am". She was unable, however, to give any reasons for this belief; but stated that it was not for any personal reasons but because she knew too much. She could not explain what it was that she knew which would cause anyone to want her out of the way, nor did she give at any time a direct or clear answer to any of the questions asked her by the writer. She insisted, nevertheless, that an agent be sent to see her at once. During the entire conversation, Miss [REDACTED] was incoherent, rambling and gave the impression of being mentally unbalanced.

ACTION: Miss [REDACTED] was told that the matter was evidently one for the local authorities, and the limitation of the Bureau's jurisdiction were explained to her. She then launched into a tirade against all local, state, and federal agencies and hung up.

RECOMMENDATION: It is recommended that this memorandum be made a matter of record only.

Respectfully,

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

RE: [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]

Assistant SAC Kimball telephoned this morning from New York and furnished the following information concerning the above named individuals.

67C-1

Miss [REDACTED] was located at the Presbyterian Medical Center, 620 West 168th Street, and it was ascertained through the hospital authorities that she had been brought to the hospital on the evening of January 2 in a delirious condition. Permission was given to interview her. She stated she resides at [REDACTED] Newark, New Jersey, and that she had no information whatsoever to furnish to the Bureau. She stated that her brother, [REDACTED] had brought her to the hospital on the evening of January 2nd, and that in her delirious condition she had asked him to call a personal friend named Jack Hoover who resides in Cincinnati, Ohio. She stated that her brother had apparently misinterpreted her request and had placed a call for the Director. She stated that her brother was residing in Newark, New Jersey with her.

67C-1

Miss [REDACTED] further stated that when her brother told her on the morning of January third that he had endeavored to get in touch with the Director, that she urged him to call the Director again and point out his mistake.

67C-1

[REDACTED] was contacted telephonically at Newark, New Jersey, and while at first stating he was a personal friend of the Director, he subsequently admitted he did not know the Director and was only calling because his sister had requested him to do so. The probability exists that both [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] are mental cases.

At the above time, Mr. [REDACTED] called the writer from Mt. Jackson, Virginia concerning the captioned individual. He gave the following information:

Mr. [REDACTED] related that he had just received word that Dailey had been found dead on January 1, 1944 by the chamber maid at the Westchester Apartments in Washington. According to [REDACTED] an attempt was made on Dailey's life approximately three years ago by persons unknown when he was injected with poison by means of a hypodermic needle while asleep. Mr. Dailey recovered from this experience and from that time on was afraid for his life, having had Police protection at one time. The cause of the attack was not ascertained, but Mr. Dailey suspected that representatives of certain large oil companies had tried to block the development of a twenty-acre oil tract which he held in Texas. Mr. [REDACTED] also stated that Dailey had appeared before a Senate investigating committee which was inquiring into oil operations in Texas.

Because of the above circumstances, Mr. Dailey had asked Mr. [REDACTED] to report to the police at once if the former died suddenly, so that any evidence of foul play might be recognized. Mr. [REDACTED] requested that the Bureau investigate the matter.

ACTION: Mr. [REDACTED] was informed of the Bureau's lack of jurisdiction in matters of this type and told that it appeared to be a case for the local authorities. He then requested that the writer notify the Metropolitan Police of the situation, and I agreed to do so. Accordingly, I contacted Lt. T. J. Sullivan of the Washington Police Department and gave the information to him. He stated that the Homicide Squad had already checked into the case but that he would report my call to that unit.

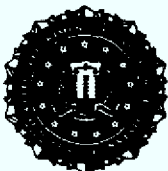

RECOMMENDATION: It is suggested that no further action need be taken.

Re: [REDACTED]
MISCELLANEOUS - FORGERY

b7C-1 For your information and for permanent record you are advised that [REDACTED] Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, called from the Capitol Hotel, Washington, D. C., where he will be registered until tomorrow night, stating that he had just driven down from Philadelphia, and had picked up a hitchhiker who gave his name as [REDACTED] described [REDACTED] as being "under the weather" and as "drinking a little." He said that [REDACTED] had with him "about fifty" check books of the vest pocket variety; that one of the check books was on the Gimbol Brothers Bank, Philadelphia, and another on the Pennsylvania Trust Company Bank in Philadelphia.

b7C-1 [REDACTED] stated that in his inebriated condition [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] that he was wanted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the police departments at Philadelphia and Washington, D. C., and also at many other points in the United States. [REDACTED] said that perhaps [REDACTED] was kidding him but he thought that he had better report the matter anyway, especially in view of the fact that he did have in his possession all these various kinds of check books.

b7C-1 [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] was presently sitting over at the bus station at New York Avenue and Eleventh Street, Northwest - or at least he was ten minutes before the phone call. [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] was waiting for a bus on which he intended to return to Philadelphia, and from there he expected to go immediately to Cape May, New Jersey.

b7C-1 [REDACTED] furnished the following description: name, [REDACTED] age, about thirty; height, about 5 feet, 9 1/2 inches; weight, about 180 pounds; build, medium stout; hair, red (partially bald); clothes, grey hat, dark overcoat.

b7C-1 A search of Bureau indices failed to reflect any record on an individual named [REDACTED] b7C-1 Special Agent E. C. Sauer ^{of the Wash. Field Division} was immediately thereafter furnished the above information, and it was suggested to him that perhaps he should search the Field Office indices for any record on [REDACTED]. It was further suggested that if the relationship between the Washington Field Office and the Metropolitan Police Department justified the action that it might be well to inform the local police.

Recommended Action: None.

Details:

When advised the Director was out of the office Miss Sheitlin stated she was a distant relative on Mr. Hoover's mother's side and she was calling to say hello. Miss Sheitlin also stated she wished Mr. Hoover to know that they were all proud of him. She was assured Mr. Hoover would be given her message.

It is noted she was most reluctant to give the writer her name, and there is a possibility the name is "Heitlin" and not "Sheitlin". However, files have no record of anyone who appears to be identical with either of those names.

Miss Sheitlin did not indicate where she was from.
